 v.
 KATHERINE MCNAMARA, an individual, JEREMY WHITELEY, an individual, and DOES 1 through 50,
 inclusive,

 Defendants.

Case No. 2:22-cv-02052-SB-MAA

PLAINTIFF BREAKING CODE
 SILENCE’S RESPONSES TO DEFENDANT JEREMY
 WHITELEY’S THIRD SET OF INTERROGATORIES

 Judge: Hon. Maria A. Audero
 Complaint Filed: March 28, 2022
 Trial Date: October 17, 2023

PROPOUNDING PARTY: Defendant JEREMY WHITELEY
 RESPONDING PARTY: Plaintiff BREAKING CODE SILENCE
 SET NO.: Three

1 Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 36, Plaintiff Breaking Code
2 Silence (“Plaintiff”) hereby responds as follows to Defendant Jeremy Whiteley’s
3 Third Set of Interrogatories (the “Requests”) as follows:

4 GENERAL STATEMENT AND OBJECTIONS

5 Plaintiff’s responses are subject to the General Objections set forth below.
6 These General Objections form a part of each response to each Request and are set
7 forth here to avoid the duplication and repetition that would follow from restating
8 them in each response. The General Objections may be specifically referred to in 9 response to the Requests for the purpose of clarity; however, the failure to 10 specifically reference a General Objection in a response should not be construed as a 11 waiver of the objection in connection therewith.

12 1. Plaintiff objects to these Requests to the extent that they seek 13 information neither relevant to this litigation, nor reasonably calculated to lead to 14 the discovery of admissible evidence, nor proportional to the needs of the case, in 15 violation of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1).

16 2. Plaintiff objects to these Requests to the extent that they seek 17 information already in Defendants’ possession, or information that is in the public
18 domain or otherwise equally available to Plaintiff.

19 3. Plaintiff objects to these Requests to the extent that they are vague, 20 ambiguous, overbroad, oppressive, or seek information for which the burden or 21 expense of the proposed discovery outweighs the likely benefit.

22 4. Plaintiff objects to these Requests to the extent that they are not limited 23 to a reasonable time period and are therefore overbroad, seek information for which 24 the burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs the likely benefit, and 25 seek information beyond the scope of permissible discovery.

26 5. Plaintiff objects to these Requests to the extent that they seek 27 information that is protected from discovery by the attorney-client privilege and/or 28 attorney work-product doctrine, protected by the right to privacy, or protected by

1 any other applicable privilege or protection. Any inadvertent production of 2 privileged or protected information shall not constitute, or be deemed, a waiver of 3 any applicable statutory, regulatory, common law, or other privilege.

4 6. Plaintiff objects to these Requests to the extent that they seek the 5 disclosure of information that contain private, proprietary, confidential, trade secret,
6 sensitive financial, or otherwise protected information.

7 7. Plaintiff objects to these Requests to the extent that they call for 8 speculation because Plaintiff lacks sufficient foundation to provide a response.

9 8. Plaintiff objects to these Requests to the extent that Defendants purport
10 to impose on Plaintiff any obligation different from, or greater than, those set forth
11 in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Local Rules of the Central District of 12 California, or other applicable rules or standing orders of the Court. Plaintiff is not 13 obligated to, and declines to, comply with any instructions or directions that conflict
14 with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Local Rules of the Central District of 15 California, or other applicable rules or standing orders of the Court.

16 9. Plaintiff objects to these Requests to the extent that they seek the 17 disclosure of information that calls for an expert witness opinion.

18 10. Plaintiff objects to these Requests to the extent that they seek 19 information that addresses purely legal issues, contains legal conclusions, implies or 20 assumes facts or circumstances which do not or did not exist, or seeks an admission
21 of liability.

22 11. Plaintiff objects to these Requests to the extent they seek to restrict the 23 facts on which Plaintiff may rely at summary judgment, trial, or any other 24 proceeding in this matter. Discovery has yet to be completed in this case. By 25 responding and objecting to these Requests, Plaintiff does not intend to, and does 26 not, limit the evidence upon which it may rely to support its contentions, denials,
27 and defenses, or to rebut or impeach contentions, assertions, and evidence presented 28

1 by Defendants. Further, Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement or amend its 2 responses.

3 These General Objections are incorporated into each of the responses
4 hereinafter provided as if the same were fully set forth therein.

20 RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 19:

21 In addition to the General Objections set forth above and incorporated herein,
22 Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory on the ground that it seeks information
23 protected by attorney-client privilege or the work product doctrine.

24 Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Plaintiff responds
25 that the request was not made by Google. It's investigation into this matter is 26 described in Plaintiff's response to Whiteley Interrogatories Nos. 2, 3 and 4.
27 Specifically, on March 11, 2022, Jesse Jensen, a BCS volunteer, was notified that 28 <www.breakingcodesilence.org> had been deindexed on Google. Mr. Jensen

1 worked into the night and much of the following day with several other BCS
2 volunteers evaluating the site and situation. These efforts included an extensive
3 review of the server content and configuration as well as Google search console and 4 a call to domain registrar Hover to confirm that the domain was still held by 5 defendant McNamara in an account to which BCS did not have access.

6 BCS learned through these efforts that the Defendants had control of the 7 domain name and were using Google DNS validation to control the Google account
8 and had made a de-indexing request. This meant it was not possible to secure the 9 site without gaining control of the domain via legal or ICANN action. As a stop-gap, 10 Mr. Jensen gained a different level of control via Google file validation - by placing 11 a file specified by Google on the server. This allowed Mr. Jensen to remove the 12 malicious de-index request, but not to gain control of the domain name or 13 permanently remove Defendants' access to Google Search Console. As BCS
14 continued to take efforts to remove Defendants' privileges over the next several 15 days, Defendants continued adding them back eventually adding odd and 16 unexpected email addresses like "president@whitehouse.gov". As of this date,
17 defendant Whiteley still has access via the email address "jeremy@medtexter.com"
